English language proficiency is essential to succeed in post-graduate studies at Australian universities. For an application to be eligible, a valid IELTS (Academic) or TOEFL-iBT or PTE Academic certificate must be included.

Overall requirements

Where an institution's academic English language requirement is higher than DFAT's requirement for the main course of study, the awardee must meet the institution's requirement.

Note: No exemption from providing an English language proficiency certificate is to those who gained tertiary qualifications abroad in English.

For further details about English language scores, see the Australia Awards Scholarships Policy Handbook (Section 2.4).
